“ International Trade & Information Technology in Global Economy: Implication of E-Marketplaces”

The 1st International Conference on International Trade & Information Technology in Global Economy: Implication for E-Marketplaces (ICIT 2019) will take place in Annaba, Algeria, on March 20-21, 2019. with an excellent lineup of keynote speakers and many thematic workshops, ICIT is the prime annual event in International Trade, bringing together researchers and scientists from academics and industry.

The theme for ICIT 2019 highlights the role of e-marketplaces as a broad, multidisciplinary field tackling problems and creating synergies with other disciplines. Located in north Africa in the Mediterranean sea, Annaba is one of Algeria's main industrial and old cities, founded in 1295 BC.J.-C., known under the successive names of Ubon, Hippo Regius, Hippone, Bouna, Bled El Aneb, Bone, and finally, Annaba.

We invite original contributions on all topics related to International Trade & Information Technology (IT), included but not limited to:

- IT & International Trade Relationships / IT & International Trade and logistics / IT & FDI
- IT & International Trade infrastructure / IT & International Finance / IT & Governance
- IT & International Marketing / IT & International Tourism / IT & International law
- IT & New Environment Technologies / IT & Societies / IT & Sustainability
